

Are there ranges for the Posture Number?

if you look inside the instruction manual, you'll see we have a listing for what these various ranges mean. The accuracy of the software is plus or -1°. So it has a very narrow range of what normal would be. Anything above 2° of offset needs to be watched, a re-examination in 4 to 6 months to see if that result is consistent or getting worse.

Online URL: <https://posturepro.phpkb.cloud/article.php?id=118>